

Ventura County
Resource Conservation District

HEALTHY SOILS PROGRAM (HSP)

OPEN FOR APPLICATIONS

Ventura County Resource Conservation District (VCRCD) was awarded California Department of Food & Agriculture (CDFA) funding to support agricultural operations improve soil health!

Individuals and entities that own or control agricultural land can be awarded up to $200,000 for implementing eligible HSP practices. This includes compost application, cover cropping, hedgerow planting, mulching, range planting, and many more! Learn more about HSP project eligibility and payment rates on VCRCD's website. HSP application assistance is FREE!

CONTACT VCRCD & APPLY TODAY

Emily Nye

Agricultural & Environmental Sustainability Specialist

emily.nye@vcrcd.org

805-764-5155

vcrcd.org/hsp-bgr/

Funding provided by CDFA's Healthy Soils Program (HSP) Block Grant Pilot Program.